Wonders of Wildlife invites area kids to color pictures of encouragement for those keeping our community safe

Drawings will be displayed on the Aquarium's outdoor digital screen

Springfield, Mo. – Wonders of Wildlife National Museum and Aquarium is inviting kids across the Ozarks to color a picture of encouragement for the everyday heroes working on the frontlines of the COVID-19 pandemic. Children of all ages can draw a message of support for doctors, nurses, first responders and everyone working to keep our community safe.

Parents can take a photo of their child's drawing and email it to press@wondersofwildlife.org. Certain drawings will be selected to play on the giant digital screen outside Wonders of Wildlife at the corner of Sunshine St. and Campbell Ave. Drawings will also be shared on Wonders of Wildlife's social media channels.

About Johnny Morris' Wonders of Wildlife National Museum and Aquarium

Johnny Morris' Wonders of Wildlife National Museum and Aquarium consists of an all-new 1.5-million-gallon Aquarium Adventure showcasing 35,000 live fish, mammals, reptiles, amphibians, and birds, and immersive Wildlife Galleries that bring visitors eye-to-eye with the greatest collection of record-setting game animals ever assembled. Created by noted conservationist and Bass Pro Shops founder/CEO Johnny Morris, the 350,000-square-foot experience celebrates those who hunt, fish, and act as stewards of the land and water. Located next to Bass Pro Shops National Headquarters in Springfield, Missouri the campus is a centerpiece of America's Conservation Capital in Missouri's Ozark Mountains. Wonders of Wildlife has been voted "Best New Attraction in America" and “America’s Best Aquarium” by the readers of USA TODAY. For more information, visit www.wondersofwildlife.org.
